Description

Flowers – the laconic symbol of the nature, of the infinity of its perfection, the emblem of gyre – birth, life, death and rebirth. The flowers represent the beauty, natural innocence, divine blessing, spring, youth, kindness, joy of paradise, but also the brevity of being.

This watch was inspired by the wild flowers, which are valued for their modesty, laconism and at the same time for their extraordinary tenderness, which is associated with freshness and sincerity of feelings.

A bouquet of wild flowers shows better than others the charm of such beautiful and beloved season of the year as summer. They represent all the richness of the colors of summer fields and meadows, because exactly these colors absorb the purity of blue sky, the infinity of green fields and forests, the juiciness and saturation of meadow grass, and, of course, the warmth of the summer sun. The wild flowers from the earliest times symbolize the combination of the nature and the human soul. They speak of mutual goodness.

The wild flowers carry their historical romance and have their own language – they symbolize the purity of intentions, chastity and good attitude.
